My Friend Emmanuel.

Your letter directed to A. Levy Esq came to hand & in which you stated that you had delivered the arms belonging to Mrs Richardson (formerly Miss Amanda Damon) to boy Sam, which as you told Levy before, but said boy Jim said you had not done so. My Wm Richardson came in the Store here & I enquire about it I have to tell you that you have made me about to be excused, that you had put her to trouble first for your friend. I have nothing of any consequence to tell you Levy, he gave up William's gun, because it is very dull but I have a good deal of powder on hand as we had a shelf fixed halfway through middle of the Store, Collections are indeed

Your letter of the 8th inst by Mr Rawlin I received in good health, in which I hope this will reach you your letter indeed was very pleasing to me to hear about the kind attention you paid on me by the little package I send to your care for Miss Augusta & more so to hear the kind talk of such a charming young lady as Miss Aug. if I had any chance of coming out, I would do so with the greatest pleasure but complying with your request to put write to Miss Gus I decline to do so as I am not well enough acquainted a little bashful, as I think it might not altogether be pleasing to her! Your letter
